SAMUEL McCONATHY - 1745 to 1818

The following is the lineage of a McConathy family that migrated to Bienville Parish, Louisiana. The first three generations were documented by Kathleen H. McConathy of Houston, Texas. Seems like it's posted on the McConathy family website (you can find it through google.com).

Fourth Generation:

(This information came from History of Bienville Parish vol. I & II combined with family records of Mary McConathy of Rayville, LA, McConathy family records of Kathleen McConathy of Houston, TX, old White family Bible records of Ann White of Monroe, LA, and White family records of Sloane Mason of Fayetteville, GA.)

Joseph J. McConathy was born 21 Feb. 1829 in SC and died 21 May 1892. He is buried in Pruitt Cemetery near Arcadia, LA. During the Civil War he served as a private in Co. H., 28th (Gray's) LA Infantry and he enlisted 15 Aug. 1862.

Joseph's wife was Elizabeth White, who was born 6 June 1834 in Kemper, MS, and died 29 March 1892 in Arcadia, LA.

Her father was Andrew White (b. 19 June 1810 Randolph, NC, m. 4 Aug. 1831 Washington Co., AL, d. 24 Dec. 1871 Collinsville, TX). He was the son of John White or Johann Weiss and Rebecca Dorsett. According to an old family history, John White was the son of Ulrich Weiss or White who was living in 1759 in Orange Co., NC. Ulrich Weiss arrived in Philadelphia on a ship called St. Mark on 26 Sept. 1741. John or Johann was born in 1744, probably in Ridge Valley, Upper Salford, Philadelphia Co., PA (now known as Montgomery Co.) and came to Orange Co., NC with his parents and other relatives. John was said to have been born and reared in a Pennsylvania German settlement and did not hear the English language spoken until he was 16 years old when his family moved to Rocky River in the present Randolph Co., NC. His first wife was Jane, whom he married ca. 1767 in Gilford or Chatham Co., NC. They moved to Mississippi Territory (Clarke Co., AL) after 1810. She died in Clarke Co., AL on 24 Dec. 1824.

John's second wife was Rebecca Dorsett, whom he probably married between 1800 and 1807 in Chatham Co., NC. Rebecca was born ca. 1772, probably in Chatham Co., NC, and died in 1851 in Kemper Co., MS. John's family history was passed down through their son Isaac.

Elizabeth White's mother was Lucretia Rochelle (b. 24 Jan. 1812 TN, d. 18 Feb. 1860 Bienville Parish). She was the daughter of Etherington Rochelle or Rotchel (b. ca. 1758, d. after 1837, his last place of residence was Kemper Co., MS) and his wife Eleanor Warden, whom he married on 24 Sept. 1779 in Holly Township, New Hanover Co., NC.

Family Bible records show his wife's name as Elizabeth instead of Eleanor. Etherington's father was John Rotchel, who died in Holly Shelter, New Hanover Co., NC, in 1786. John's wife was named Sarah.

On 6 Sept. 1894 he married Anna N. D. Boddie. Anna's father was Civil War veteran Nicholas Boddie (b. 1845 Edgefield, SC, d. 19 March 1902 Bear Creek, LA). Nick Boddie served in Co. His parents were Wesley Boddie (b. 1797 SC, d. 1884 Lincoln Parish, LA) and Loruhama Hannia Smith (b. 1802 SC, d. 1882 Lincoln Parish, LA). The name "Loruhama" is from the first chapter of the book of Hosea, and it means "no mercy".
