INTRODUCTION

Brief Resume of History: The McConnaughey Society of America was formed in 1961. The first Bulletin was published in 1963. From 1971 to the present, this has been an annual publication, now over 80 pages in length. In 1976 the first annual Gathering was held in Indianapolis, IN attended by members from 10-12 states. The 6th Annual Gathering in 1981 exceeded 50 in number and included 'expanded' events.

The Society is now incorporated and has Federal tax-exempt status. One of the major aims is to promote interest and preserve records, with the ultimate aim to publish the records and genealogies.

Thanks to an exceptional membership response in 1980, Report of Research in Ulster Ireland, 1979 was published in 1980 and presented to the 1979 members as a 'bonus' book.

Also in 1980, the 1st volume of the Salt Lake City research done by Sylvia Gatton Gifford was published in an effort to further circulate the records and preserve them for the future. Further -- there are so many requests for help that it isn't possible for the Secretary to do justice to them all. By having the Salt Lake City records printed, many more can be helped; therefore in 1981 it was decided to publish the second volume of Salt Lake City records as a bonus for the 1980 membership.

The limitations of time prevented a thorough 'editing' of the material; so in places there are duplications, typographical errors, etc. Comments by the researcher are noted 'sg' and by the editor, 'pg.'

Sylvia Gatton Gifford has been interested in genealogy since 1935. By profession she was an electrical engineer and worked for the Navy in the Seattle area. After leaving the Navy in 1948, she turned her attention to serious genealogy work. After extending her own lines far back into medieval time periods, she turned her attention to the work of other people. She says that the work on the McConnaughey lines has been most interesting to her because of her own Scotch-Irish background.

Kenneth Earl McConnaughay visited Salt Lake City about 1972 and suggested that the Society have continuing work done there and funded the first years of effort until his death in 1975.

A third volume of Salt Lake City records will be compiled and used for reference here until such time as it, too, can be printed and distributed.

A limited number of these books will be available for purchase and should be of special interest to libraries and societies where lots of our name have lived.

History Miami Co., 1880, 977.148 H2c, Bethel Township, p. 636-7:

J. C. McConnaughey, farmer, P. O. Brandt; is a son of David and Anna (Grimes) McConnaughey; she is a native of Virginia, born Jan. 1, 1787, and he of Pennsylvania, born Nov. 13, 1779, in 1803 or 1804, he came to Dayton, Ohio, and engaged to work in a distillery for Col. Newcome, who entered 160 acres of land in Bethel Township, Miami Co., for him, he paying for it by his work; in the spring of 1812, he settled on his land and began converting the dense forest into a home; this was no small task, for the country was heavily timbered; before he could raise anything on his own land, the first summer, he farmed a small piece of corn on his mother-in-law's place, about four miles distant; to his further embarrassment, in the following year he was drafted, but was in the service only a short time till he got his brother as a substitute, while he returned to battle with the oaks and elms; besides clearing up his farm, he purchased another quarter-section, and did considerable toward its improvement; they were the parents of twelve children, of whom eleven grew to the age of maturity. David McConnaughey departed this life Feb. 14, 1847, and his wife April 11, 1863, on the old farm where their son, J. C., now resides; this is also the farm on which he was born, July 3, 1823; his occupation has always been tilling the soil; he is an enterprising farmer and one of the prominent men of the township; has been a member of the Board of Education for nearly twenty years, Township Trustee several terms, and is Land Appraiser at the present time. His marriage with Elizabeth Keplinger was solemnized April 1, 1852; she was a resident of Montgomery Co., born Sept. 11, 1833; by this union they have had thirteen children, eleven of whom are living -- Harriet Roselia, Mary Alice, Phila Irene, John Walter, David Franklin, Berton K., Christian K., Lillia E., Anna B., Edward I., and Viola M.

DAVID McCONNAUGHEY, farmer and manufacturer, P. O. Tippecanoe; born in Bethel Township, Miami Co., April 23, 1827; is a son of David and Anna McConnguthey, of whom mention is made in the biography of J. C. McConnaughey. He left home at the age of 17, to learn the tanner and currier trade, serving an apprenticeship of three years; for seven years he followed tanning and dealing in leather; in 1855, he located on a farm in this township, and followed farming till 1865, when he went to Xenia, and again engaged in the leather trade till 1876, when he moved back to this county, and has since been engaged in farming; in August of 1878, he again began the leather trade, and manufactured collars and fly-nets in Dayton, Ohio, but resides on the farm and oversees it. In 1852, October 13, he married Rachel TenEick, a native of this county, born May 30, 1831; she is a daughter of Henry TenEick, one of the early settlers of Miami Co. David and Rachel McConnaughey are the parents of four children -- Ella T., William A., Anna and Lida.

In checking back, I find David McConaughy d. 19 Mar. 1896 in Miami Co., OH (#170). SG

f555701 Probate Journal 1893-1897:

p. 139: In the account of the estate of David McConnaughey dec'd, the court upon application grants letters of administration on the estate of David McConnaughey late of Miami Co. decs. to Rachel McConnaughey his widow. Thereupon she accepts said appointment, files a settlement of the whole estate & presents her bond as such. Admitted in the sum of $2200 with W. B. Ten Eick & A. E. Nishwitz as sureties to the approval of the court. A. W. Leonard & A. W. Miles & A. E. Nishwitz appointed appraisers 14 Apr. 1896.

p. 159: Appraisement of David McConnaughey estate filed with court 16 May 1896.

(It is odd Rachel was buying land in her own name (see #165) in 1886 when her husband was still living. I wonder if he was declared nto able to handle his own affairs. I'll see if I can find anything on it. SG)

f555702 Probate Journal 1897-1899:

p. 525/6, 5 Apr. 1899, in the matter of the estate of David McConnaughey decd. It appears from the representation of Rachel McConnaughey, admin., will probably be insufficient for the payment of the debts of said David McConnaughey & the court therefore appoints said Rachel as commissioner, to proceed according to law to receive & examine claims against said estate & it is ordered that she give notice of the times & places of setting to receive & examine such claims by publication for three weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in said Co. of Miami.

p. 531: 10 June 1891, In the matter of trusteeship of Fulmer McConnaughey under will of Justina Stoker decs. The court on application granted letters of trusteeship or and for Fulmer McConnaughey under the will of Justina Stoker decd. to Jacob Coppock. He accepted. He presented his bond in the sum of $550.

will of Justina Stoker decs. Jacob Coppack trustee of Fulmer heretofore appointed by this court appeared in open court & produced (some of this I can't make out. SG) papers Jacob Coppock executor ect., plaintiff Fulmer McConnaughey defendant. Jacob has secured an order of the court directing him to lease the real estate of which he was appointed trustee for the purpose of paying the debts of Justina Stoker amounting to about $1200 & the lease of Jacob Coppock to J. M. Stoker as recorded in Vo. 3 page 129 Miami Court Records. Show that said lands were leased under & by the order of Court, until 1 Sept. 1912 & further appearing to the court that during said period the said J. Stoker reaped all crops from the farm & was to pay all taxes & keep the buildings in state of repair & further appearing that Jacob Coppock will not trustee ordered that he not to pay expenses until after date of expiration of above.

(There are no wills at the society after 1901. It might be well to write to the clerk of the court to see if Rachel McConnaughey left a will. We know she was living in 1902. SG) f453094 Land 1883: I tried checking the whole of 1883 for Joseph McConahy and found nothing. We Will just have to forget the deeds for this county. They are in too much confusion. I am going to try the 1850 census to pick up what township the Mc Connaugheys were found in & will then check the book listed at top of page for the tsp.. Checked 1850 census, no help, none there that early. I'm going to forget this book for a while. SG

INDEX

Please note: Pat Benedict volunteered to type this book and did start, then was forced to quit; so Ivan Benedict indexed (as promised) the 'untyped' pages and PMG proceeded with the typing. PMG then renumbered the index to conform with the typed pages. Sometimes Iva and PMG didn't agree on the spelling of the untaped pages; so there are some discrepancies I will say that all typographical errors and undoubtedly most spelling errors (showing up in the index) should be laid at PMG's door-step, not at Ivan's!! His help cut the 'finish' time considerably, and the work both Ivan and Pat did is greatly appreciated.

Since it would take many pages to index the McConnaughey (etc.) names, only other names have been indexed. Following the 'other name' index is one by state or country and, in the case of Ohio and Pennsylvania, by county, as well.
